Year-round specialization

Year-round specialization does not improve an athlete's chances of playing professionally. Instead, according to a new study, it increases the risk of serious injury.

The latest report confirms what dozens of studies have already concluded in recent years — sport specialization does more harm than good. The study examined professional baseball players in the Atlantic League, and it was published this month by the Orthopedic Journal of Sports Medicine.

Dr. John Deitch, one of the researchers, said the findings don't just apply to baseball players.

From Transforming Health: "Parents need to understand that too much of anything can have a detrimental effect on us, and always keep that in the back of the mind," Deitch said. Deitch, an orthopedic surgeon, has seen an uptick in overuse injuries among teens and college-aged athletes, which he traces back to too much training. He says children are better off being active in a variety of sports, which helps them to build the foundation for athletic success when they become teenagers.

According to the study, early sport specialization in youth athletes has been increasing progressively, to the point that 77.7 percent of high school athletic directors have reported an increase in this trend. Coach & Athletic Director's annual survey of athletic administrators consistently finds that sport specialization is among the greatest concerns in high school athletic departments.

In the study, nearly half of players who participated reported specializing in a single sport at an early age. Those players suffered more serious injuries during their careers than the players who didn't specialize.

Of all players, 63.4 percent said they didn't believe sport specialization was required to play professionally.

MUSKEGON HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE MICHIGAN BOYS FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

— In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced La'Darius Jefferson of Muskegon High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Michigan Football Player of the Year to be school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced La'Darius Gatorade Michigan Football Player of the Year. Jefferson is the first chosen from Muskegon High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Jefferson as Michigan's best high school football player.

The 6-foot-2, 215-pound senior quarterback rushed for 2,095 yards and 33 touchdowns this past season, leading the Big Reds to a 14-0 record and the Division 3 state championship. Jefferson also completed 67 of 117 passes for 1,205 yards and 21 touchdowns, throwing just two interceptions.

He was selected Michigan's Mr. Football, the Associated Press Div. 3-4 Player of the Year and the MLive Player of the Year. Jefferson has volunteered locally on behalf of an elementary school literacy initiative as well as an emergency food assistance program. "Jefferson is a physical specimen, with size, speed and the arm to go with it," said Kyle Jewett, head coach at Reeths-Puffer High. "What impressed me most was his patience as a runner. He has the unique ability to wait for one seam to open and then explode through it." Jefferson has maintained a 3.47 GPA in the classroom.

Jefferson joins recent Gatorade Michigan Football Players of the Year Donovan Peoples-Jones (2016-17, Cass Technical High School), Tony Poljan (2015-16, Lansing Catholic High School), Alex Malzone (2014-15, Brother Rice High School), Travis Smith (2013-14, Ithaca High School), Mark Chapman (2012-13, Port Huron High School), Cooper Rush (2011-12, Lansing Catholic High School), Valdez Showers (2010-11, Madison High School), and Jason Fracassa (2009-10, Stevenson High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Jefferson will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support.

December 2017 Newsletter

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

South Dakota is poised and ready for the 2018 National Convention. Jim Dorman, Jerry Miller, Virg Polak, and Dave Dougherty have been working tirelessly to put on a fantastic convention. We have a lot of action happening in NHSACA. A few of the speakers we have for this summer are: Kirk Ferentz, John Stiegelmeier, Brad Seely, Derek Miles, Lucky Huber and Chris Bono. A complete list and schedule will be sent out later.

We will have Dave Dougherty paid for last year this month and begin working on this year's salary. The goal for the Exec. Committee remains to be current at the end of this fiscal year.

We have had discussion on adding sports to COTY as stand alone. The two that have been discussed the most are Lacrosse and Cheer and Dance. We are in the process of setting some criteria on how to go about that. Three big factors; are they a sanctioned sport, do we have enough nominations in special sports to separate them, and do we have member states that sanction these sports.

The COTY nomination deadline has been extended to Dec. 18, due to the devastating storms this year. We will identify the finalists the 2nd week of Jan. The sport chairs have received the nominations we have to this point.

My thoughts and prayers are with all those who have lost a loved one.

God Bless,

David Dolan

Valued customers in Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas,

We're pleased to announce Amanda Estep (Mandy), has joined the Medco Sports Medicine sales team, serving our South Central Territory.

Living just outside of Cincinnati Ohio, Mandy will assume responsibility for our Midwest sales territory which includes the states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Mandy received her Bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Eastern Kentucky University where she was a member of the women's varsity soccer team, and her Master's degree in Sports Medicine from Georgia State University in Atlanta. After working several years as an Athletic Trainer for high schools in Georgia, North Carolina and Florida, Mandy and her family returned to Cincinnati where she worked as an Outreach Athletic Trainer for Mercy Health.
