Richard Hochstein, proprietor of Wonderland Lanes for almost 50 years, passed away on March 5, 2015. Richard held a very large role in the Walled Lake High School Bowling Program for many years. Richard lived for his family, friends and community, and put a smile on the face of everyone he met. The Richard Hochstein Scholarship Fund was set up in Richards honor. This fund offers a scholarship opportunity to the bowlers who plan to attend an accredited college or university while continuously acting as a positive role model in the community. This recipient will carry on Richards legacy of treating people with respect at all times and making a positive difference in the people around them.
